

SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

FALL 2020 VIRTUAL EVENTS

Monday, September 14, 3-4:30 PM

RESEARCHING SOUTH ASIA IN THE TIME OF COVID

A Panel Discussion with Asher Ghertner, Geography; Triveni Kuchi, Libraries and Johan Mathew, History

Zoom Webinar
Log in details to follow

Monday, September 28, 9-10:30 AM

SURVIVING THE PANDEMIC IN SOUTH ASIA:

HOW COVID, LOCKDOWNS, AND FLOODING ARE IMPACTING THE MOST VULNERABLE

A Panel discussion with Anita Patil-Deshmukh, PUKAR; Imran Ahmed, Shakti Foundation, and Usman Javed, Mazdoor Pahal

Zoom Webinar
Log in details to follow

Friday, October 9, 11 AM -1:00 PM

AMESALL DISTINGUISHED LECTURE: A RELATIVIST VIEW OF THE INDIAN NATION

A talk by Partha Chatterjee, Anthropology and MESAAS, Columbia

Zoom Webinar
Log in details to follow

Wednesday, October 21, 4-5:30 PM

HISTORY AND COLLECTIVE MEMORY IN SOUTH ASIA

A seminar with Sumit Guha, History, The University of Texas at Austin, with comments by Camilla Townsend, History, and Tamara Sears, Art History

Zoom Webinar
Log in details to follow

Thursday, November 12, 12 PM

CASTE MATTERS

A talk by Suraj Yengde, Post-Doctoral Fellow, Initiative for Institutional Anti-racism and Accountability, Harvard Kennedy School

Zoom Webinar
Log in details to follow

For further information, visit southasia.rutgers.edu

RUTGERS
School of Arts and Sciences