

SOUTH ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

FALL 2018 EVENTS

Monday, October 8

EXPLETIVES DELETED: A CULTURAL HISTORY OF SWEARING AND ABUSE IN SOUTH ASIA

A talk by A. R. Venkatachalapathy, Madras Institute of Development Studies
Academic Building 6051, 15 Seminary Place, New Brunswick, 11:30AM (lunch served)

Monday, October 15

NAWABI MODERNITY: HINDUSTANI MUSIC, MUSLIMS AND REFORM IN PRINCELY RAMPUR

A talk by Razak Khan, Center for Modern Indian Studies, Göttingen
Academic Building 6051, 15 Seminary Place, New Brunswick, 4:30PM

Thursday, October 25

GENDER, SEXUALITY & REGION IN GLOBAL ASIA

A panel discussion on intersections of gender, sexuality, and geopolitics with:
Tani Barlow, Rice University

Arnika Fuhrmann, Cornell University
Gayatri Gopinath, New York University
Pane Room, Alexander Library, 4:30-6:30PM

A Global Asias Initiative Event

Friday, October 26

LAW & RELIGION IN ASIA

A symposium on intersections of law and religion in Asia, featuring talks by:
Mitra Sharafi, University of Wisconsin, Madison

Jisoo Kim, George Washington University
Ben Schonthal, University of Otago

Pane Room, Alexander Library, 1-6PM

A Global Asias Initiative Event

Thursday, November 8

ECOLOGICAL AESTHETICS IN SOUTH ASIA

A talk by Venugopal Maddipati, Ambedkar University, Delhi
Room 411A, College Avenue Student Center, 126 College Ave, New Brunswick, 4:30PM
Co-sponsored by Art History

Friday, December 10

COOLIE WOMAN

A book talk and author Q & A with Gaiutra Bahadur
Academic Building 6051, 15 Seminary Place, New Brunswick, 4:30PM
Co-sponsored by History

For further information, visit southasia.rutgers.edu

