

THE FORGETTING OF SPACE IN LATENT WORLDS

GANDHI AND THE ARCHITECTURE OF
ECOLOGICAL SILENCE IN INDIA

NOVEMBER 8, 4:30PM

411AB COLLEGE AVE STUDENT CENTER

Dr. Venugopal Maddipati
School of Design,
Ambedkar University, Delhi

Drawing on the architectural designs of Gandhi's village house, "Bapu Kuti", we see how engaging with Gandhi's notions of ecology and architecture in (post)colonial India must involve greater attention to his enigmatic negations of his own spatial involvements.

RUTGERS

School of Arts and Sciences

Sponsored by the South Asian Studies
Program and Art History